Truman in front of an oil well

Description
Harry S. Truman, wearing a suit and a cap, in front of an oil well. He is shown from the waist up. This photo was probably taken during the time Truman was a partner in the Morgan Oil and Refining Company, 1916-1917. It was evidently taken in one of the oil fields leased or owned by the company. From: Truman house, an album entitled "Postal Souvenirs."
