Exterior of "The Independence"

Description

Port side of "The Independence", special mission Douglas DC-6 which was used as a flying White House by President Harry S. Truman. Its outside markings, representing an American eagle, distinguished it from other DC-6 airliners. Donor: New York Herald Tribune

Date(s) ca.
June 1947

Accession Number 69-163

8x10 inches (21x26 cm) Black & White

Keywords Presidential aircraft

HST Keywords Airplanes - Independence

Rights Public Domain - This item is in the public domain and can be used freely without further permission.

Note: If you use this image, rights assessment and attribution are your responsibility.

Credit: New York Herald Tribune Harry S. Truman Library & Museum.

Attention media: Please make note of this item's accession number. Print out this page and retain it for your permissions records before downloading this image file for possible publication. Library staff cannot sign permissions forms or provide additional paperwork. The Library charges no usage fees for downloaded images.