Cross in Copenhagen, Denmark Memorializing Children Killed in an American Bomber Crash in World War II

Description
This is a view of a cross erected in an empty schoolyard in Copenhagen, Denmark, in memory of the children who were at the school and were killed when an American bomber crashed into the building during World War II. This photo is from a trip made by several Congressmen and government officials to the Far East.

Date(s)
July 26, 1946

Accession Number 2017-3775

4x5 inches (10x13 cm) Black & White

Related Collection Jones, J. Weldon Papers

Keywords Memorials

Rights The Library is unaware of any copyright claims to this item; use at your own risk.

Note: If you use this image, rights assessment and attribution are your responsibility.

Harry S. Truman Library & Museum.

Attention media: Please make note of this item's accession number. Print out this page and retain it for your permissions records before downloading this image file for possible publication. Library staff cannot sign permissions forms or provide additional paperwork. The Library charges no usage fees for downloaded images.