Accession Number M94
Description

A map of the post-war situation in northwestern Iran. A plastic overlay, taped on top of the map, has annotations regarding areas occupied by the Soviet Union military, including the number of divisions and troops in a designated area. The dashed purple line highlights the contested region of Iranian Azerbaijan and the red line shows the line of farthest Soviet occupation. The map, under the plastic overlay, shows railways, roads, caravan routes, boundaries, provinces, districts, deserts, mountains, islands, oases, antiquities, rivers, canals, marshes, altitudes, contours, and other details. Correspondence previously attached to this map has been placed in President's Secretary's Files, Subject File, Foreign Affairs File, Iran, Maps.
