President Truman at the new Government Accounting Office Building

Accession Number 58-144

8x10 inches (21x26 cm) Black & White

Keywords Presidents Civil service Public buildings

HST Keywords Truman - Addresses - Dedications - General Accounting Office Building; Cornerstone Laying - General Accounting Office Building; General Accounting Office Building; Autographs - Yates, Frank L.

People Pictured McShain, John, 1898-1989 Truman, Harry S., 1884-1972 Warren, Lindsay Carter, 1889-1976

Rights The Library is unaware of any copyright claims to this item; use at your own risk.

Note: If you use this image, rights assessment and attribution are your responsibility.

Harry S. Truman Library & Museum.

Attention media: Please make note of this item's accession number. Print out this page and retain it for your permissions records before downloading this image file for possible publication. Library staff cannot sign permissions forms or provide additional paperwork. The Library charges no usage fees for downloaded images.

Description
President Harry S. Truman laying the cornerstone of the new $25,000,000 Government Accounting Office building in Washington, D. C., and in a speech following the ceremony, he defended the federal budget against criticism conceived in "ignorance, and malice." Photograph is autographed by Frank L. Yates, Assistant Comptroller General of the United States; W. Englebert Reynolds, Commissioner of Public Buildings; Lindsay C. Warren, Comptroller General of the United States, and John McShain, Builder. Original is oversized.

Date(s)
September 11, 1951