Letter from Earl Warren to Truman

Supreme Court of the United States
Washington 25, D. C.

CHAMBERS OF
THE CHIEF JUSTICE

August 30, 1958

Honorable Harry S. Truman,
Independence, Missouri.

Dear Mr. President:

I am sorry that my absence from Washington prevented me from responding more promptly to your letter of July 23rd.

The only hesitancy I had about accepting the invitation to serve as a member of the Board of Directors of the Harry S. Truman Library Institute was because I thought the work done by the Institute might lead to recommendations which would affect the Executive Branch of the Government. In view of the statements in your letter, I am sure this is not the case, and I, therefore, am happy to accept.

I am looking forward with pleasure to my association with the Board of Directors, and hope it will mean that I will have an opportunity to visit with you from time to time.

With my very best wishes, I am

Sincerely,

Earl Warren.
