Senator Wayne Morse speaking from a rostrum on the steps of the Lincoln Memorial, addressing the closing session of the 38th annual conference of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. Seated in the first row on the right of the rostrum are: Walter White, President of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People; President Harry S. Truman, who also addressed the conference; and Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, who also addressed the conference.

Accession Number 73-2566

8x10 inches (21x26 cm)  Black & White

Keywords African Americans  Associations, institutions, etc.  Civil rights  Congresses and conventions  First ladies  Legislators  Presidents  Race relations  Speeches, addresses, etc.

HST Keywords Truman - Addresses - Conferences - NAACP; National Association for the Advancement of Colored People; Negroes; Roosevelt, Eleanor - Truman, H.S. (with); Lincoln Memorial; Truman - Conferences - Associations - National Association for the Advancement of Colored People; Civil Rights; Truman - Dignitaries - Political Associates - Roosevelt, Eleanor Rights Public Domain - This item is in the public domain and can be used freely without further permission.

Note: If you use this image, rights assessment and attribution are your responsibility.

Credit: Abbie Rowe  National Park Service  Harry S. Truman Library & Museum.

Attention media: Please make note of this item's accession number. Print out this page and retain it for your permissions records before downloading this image file for possible publication. Library staff cannot sign permissions forms or provide additional paperwork. The Library charges no usage fees for downloaded images.