Unidentified speaker at Constitution Day ceremonies at the Library of Congress

Description
At the Library of Congress, an unidentified man stands at the podium and speaks at Constitution Day ceremonies marking the permanent sealing of the U.S. Constitution and the Declaration of Independence. This is possibly Luther Evans, the Librarian of Congress, who also attended this event.

Date(s)
September 17, 1951

Accession Number 2005-328

8x10 inches (21x26 cm) Black & White

Related Collection Short, Joseph H. and Short, Beth Campbell Papers

Keywords Speeches, addresses, etc. United States Constitution

HST Keywords Constitution of the United States; Declaration of Independence; Library of Congress

Rights Public Domain - This item is in the public domain and can be used freely without further permission.

Note: If you use this image, rights assessment and attribution are your responsibility.

Credit: Library of Congress Harry S. Truman Library & Museum.

Attention media: Please make note of this item's accession number. Print out this page and retain it for your permissions records before downloading this image file for possible publication. Library staff cannot sign permissions forms or provide additional paperwork. The Library charges no usage fees for downloaded images.