Photo of Leon H. Keyserling, Vice Chairman of President Truman's Council of Economic Advisers

Description
Photo of Leon H. Keyserling, Vice Chairman of President Truman's Council of Economic Advisers, telling the Congressional Joint Economic Committee that the continued declined in commodity prices emphasizes that the nation is in the midst of a mixed economy--some segments being inflationary, others deflationary. He said the sharp break was not surprising but very disturbing. From: Beth Gore
