The lowering of the body of Vice Admiral John S. McCain prior to funeral services and burial in Arlington National Cemetery

Description
The body of Vice Admiral John S. McCain, who died on the coast of "battle fatigue" after returning to this country from carrier aircraft work in the Pacific, is lowered to the ground at Washington National Airport after an air trip from California. Funeral services were held this date and burial was in Arlington National Cemetery. From: Beth Gore

Date(s)
September 10, 1945

Accession Number 99-790

8x10 inches (21x26 cm) Black & White

Keywords Armed forces officers Funeral rites and ceremonies

HST Keywords Airports - Washington Airport

People Pictured McCain, John Sidney, 1884-1945

Rights The Library is unaware of any copyright claims to this item; use at your own risk.

Note: If you use this image, rights assessment and attribution are your responsibility.

Credit: Harris & Ewing Harry S. Truman Library & Museum.

Attention media: Please make note of this item's accession number. Print out this page and retain it for your permissions records before downloading this image file for possible publication. Library staff cannot sign permissions forms or provide additional paperwork. The Library charges no usage fees for downloaded images.