

Press Secretary Charles Ross at a press conference

Description

White House Press Secretary Charles Ross shown telling the Press that President Harry S. Truman, aside from his appeal for reconsideration, has no further plans to avert the steel strike. Mr. Ross specifically said that Government seizure of the steel industry so far had never been considered. The President urged the cooperation "on the grounds of the public interest as well as good business" to reconsider and accept his settlement. From: Beth Gore.

Date(s)

January 18, 1946

Accession Number 99-998

8x10 inches (21x26 cm) Black & White

Keywords Presidential press secretaries Press conferences

HST Keywords Conferences - Press - 1946; Steel Strike

People Pictured Ross, Charles G. (Charles Griffith), 1885-1950

Rights The Library is unaware of any copyright claims to this item; use at your own risk.

Note: If you use this image, rights assessment and attribution are your responsibility.

Credit: Harris & Ewing Harry S. Truman Library & Museum.

Attention media: Please make note of this item's accession number. Print out this page and retain it for your permissions records before downloading this image file for possible publication. Library staff cannot sign permissions forms or provide additional paperwork. The Library charges no usage fees for downloaded images.