Collage of photographs of General Jonathan Wainwright at Baseball Game

Description
General Jonathan Wainwright, back in this country after having been a prisoner of the Japs, finds it is the same America and that he is still a top fan. This collage of pictures made at last night's Washington-Cleveland game shows the General really taking his baseball--and the trimmings that go with it--seriously. Here he is shown being greeted by Senator-Baseball Commissioner Albert B. Chandler, eating a hot dog, scratching his neck, smoking a pipe and a cigarette, and autographing a baseball. From: Beth Gore.

Date(s)
September 13, 1945

Accession Number 99-1258

8x10 inches (21x26 cm) Black & White

Keywords Armed forces officers Baseball Generals Legislators

People Pictured Wainwright, Jonathan Mayhew, 1883-1953 Chandler, Happy, 1898-1991

Rights The Library is unaware of any copyright claims to this item; use at your own risk.

Note: If you use this image, rights assessment and attribution are your responsibility.

Credit: Harris & Ewing Harry S. Truman Library & Museum.

Attention media: Please make note of this item's accession number. Print out this page and retain it for your permissions records before downloading this image file for possible publication. Library staff cannot sign permissions forms or provide additional paperwork. The Library charges no usage fees for downloaded images.