

French President Auriol, Truman and others look at a photo album

Description
