

Coast Guard Cutter Courier

Description

Members of the Coast Guard with the cutter Courier, a floating radio transmitter used to air messages from the Voice of America. President Harry S. Truman gave a speech that was transmitted in part through the Courier.

Date(s)

March 4, 1952

Accession Number 73-3749

8x10 inches (21x26 cm)      Black & White

Keywords Cold War      Sailors      Ships

HST Keywords Ships - Courier; Truman - Addresses - Radio - T.V. - General - Voice of America; Voice of America

Rights Public Domain - This item is in the public domain and can be used freely without further permission.

Note: If you use this image, rights assessment and attribution are your responsibility.

Credit: Abbie Rowe      National Park Service      Harry S. Truman Library & Museum.

Attention media: Please make note of this item's accession number. Print out this page and retain it for your permissions records before downloading this image file for possible publication. Library staff cannot sign permissions forms or provide additional paperwork. The Library charges no usage fees for downloaded images.