

Rubber tired buggies are being used by workmen during White House renovation

Description

Rubber tired buggies are being used by workmen in transporting concrete from the mixer through the main entrance for the floors of the first floor of the White House during renovation. Some of the workmen are African American.

Date(s)

November 1, 1950

Accession Number 71-388

8x10 inches (21x26 cm) Black & White

Related Collection Harry S. Truman Papers

Keywords African Americans Building repair and reconstruction Dwellings Historic buildings
Presidential residences Renovation (Architecture)

HST Keywords Negroes; White House - Miscellaneous - Renovation

Rights Public Domain - This item is in the public domain and can be used freely without further permission.

Note: If you use this image, rights assessment and attribution are your responsibility.

Credit: Abbie Rowe National Park Service Harry S. Truman Library & Museum.

Attention media: Please make note of this item's accession number. Print out this page and retain it for your permissions records before downloading this image file for possible publication. Library staff cannot sign permissions forms or provide additional paperwork. The Library charges no usage fees for downloaded images.