Lt. Col. A. Robert Ginsburgh at National Cash Register Company

Accession Number 2003-424

Description
Lt. Col. A. Robert Ginsburgh (at podium) addresses the employees of the National Cash Register Company in their auditorium with visiting Army personnel in the background and the National Cash Register motto hanging on the "backdrop." This auditorium held approximately 3,000 people who were led in community singing. They showed great enthusiasm over the showing of the motion picture "The Arm Behind the Army." This photo was made during a visit of Army officers and enlisted men from Washington, D. C., and Patterson Field, led by Lt. Col. A. Robert Ginsburgh, Aide to the Under Secretary of War, to a National Cash Register Company Plant on May 18,1942.
