A. Robert Ginsburgh and two Gold Star Mothers in France

Description
Two Gold Star mothers, part of a larger group, pose before the gates of the Suresnes American Cemetery near Paris, France. The individuals are unidentified, but in the center is A. Robert Ginsburgh who, along with other Army officers, accompanied the group as they visited the graves of their sons and several monuments. The Suresnes Cemetery contains 1,541 graves. The men buried there died during World War I in hospitals located in Paris or at other places in the Services of Supply.
