Gold Star mothers at Aisne-Marne Memorial in France

Description
A group of Gold Star mothers look over the view as they stand on the Aisne-Marne Memorial near Chateau-Thierry, France. In the center is A. Robert Ginsburgh who, along with other Army officers, accompanied the group on their visit to the graves of their sons and to several monuments. This impressive memorial was erected on Hill 204 to commemorate the services of the American and French soldiers who participated in the important operations in the region during 1918.
