

President Truman with Third Infantry Regiment

Description

In a ceremony at the White House, President Harry S. Truman presents a baton to the Third Infantry Regiment, the oldest organization of its kind in the Army, members of which make up the Presidential Honor Guard in Washington, D. C. Col. William W. Jenna (on Truman's left), Commanding Officer, receives the baton, which was made of 136-year-old pine taken from the White House during the renovation.

Date(s)

April 10, 1952

Accession Number 2004-188

8x10 inches (21x26 cm) Black & White

Related Collection Harry S. Truman Papers Post-Presidential Papers

Keywords Armed forces officers Award presentations Awards Presidents

HST Keywords Armed Services - Army - Units - Third Infantry Regiment; Baton - Presidential; Truman - Awards - Giving - Various - Presidential Baton

People Pictured Truman, Harry S., 1884-1972

Rights The Library is unaware of any copyright claims to this item; use at your own risk.

Note: If you use this image, rights assessment and attribution are your responsibility.

Harry S. Truman Library & Museum.

Attention media: Please make note of this item's accession number. Print out this page and retain it for your permissions records before downloading this image file for possible publication. Library staff cannot sign permissions forms or provide additional paperwork. The Library charges no usage fees for downloaded images.