

President Truman Poses in the White House Bowling Alley with Paraplegic Veterans

Description
