President Truman watching Paul Carrino play a spinet piano made from material from various United Nations countries

Description
A 10 x 14 photo showing Paul Carrino playing a tune on the new United Nations spinet piano which was presented to President Truman by the National Recreation Association as part of National Music Week. The piano is made of a specially designed composite from material contributed by various United Nations countries. Standing behind Mr. Carrino is the President and second from the left is Justin Miller, President, National Association of Broadcasters.

Date(s)
May 9, 1951

Accession Number 97-2218

10 x 14 Inches Black & White

Keywords International organization Piano Presidents

HST Keywords National Music Week; Piano - Truman; Truman - Gifts - Piano - National Recreation Association; United Nations - General - Piano

People Pictured Truman, Harry S., 1884-1972

Rights Copyrighted - This item is copyrighted and cannot be published, reproduced, or otherwise used without the explicit permission of the copyright holder.

Note: If you use this image, rights assessment and attribution are your responsibility.

Credit: Hank Walker Life Magazine Harry S. Truman Library & Museum.

Attention media: Please make note of this item's accession number. Print out this page and retain it for your permissions records before downloading this image file for possible publication. Library staff cannot sign permissions forms or provide additional paperwork. The Library charges no usage fees for downloaded images.