Soldiers pitch tents among the ruins of Cheppy en route to Argonne

Description
Among the ruins of Cheppy and on a nearby hillside, a company of American infantrymen pitch their "shelter-half tents" for the night on their way to the Argonne front. In the foreground, horses drink their fill from a river. From: Lillian R. Craig, Scotland County Public Library, Memphis, Missouri.

Date(s)
1918

Accession Number 2002-397

6x8 inches Black & White

Keywords Horses Soldiers World War, 1914-1918

HST Keywords World War I - General File - Cheppy; France - World War I - Cheppy

Rights Public Domain - This item is in the public domain and can be used freely without further permission.

Note: If you use this image, rights assessment and attribution are your responsibility.

Credit: U.S. Army Signal Corps Harry S. Truman Library & Museum.

Attention media: Please make note of this item's accession number. Print out this page and retain it for your permissions records before downloading this image file for possible publication. Library staff cannot sign permissions forms or provide additional paperwork. The Library charges no usage fees for downloaded images.