Handwritten page from President Truman's speech for a luncheon of Democrats

8

Fairmont Hotel
San Francisco

I intend to keep right on fighting for the means to join with our allies in proper arrangements for our common defense against all aggressors.

I intend to keep right on fighting to build an economically strong country at home — one in which the people will get the benefit.

I don't believe in government for special privilege! Our resources should be used for the benefit of all the people.

When we produce electric power at Shasta Dam, when we develop the Roanoke Basin in Virginia, it ought to be for the benefit of the people — not for the benefit of private power companies.

The Democratic Party stands for the people, and for the public interest — and we'll keep the Party that way.

The opposition has plenty of money and powerful connections in Washington, ready

Description
Handwritten page of a speech by President Harry S. Truman for a luncheon of Democrats from eleven western states. The speech was made at the Gold Room in the Fairmont Hotel, San Francisco, California. This is in President Truman's handwriting. Donor: Hennepin County Historical Society

Date(s)
September 4, 1951

Accession Number 2006-454

8x10 inches (21x26 cm) Black & White

Keywords Presidential personal matters Signatures (Writing) Speeches, addresses, etc.

HST Keywords Documents - Truman, Harry S. - Speech; Truman - Addresses - Dinners - Political - Ref. to

Rights The Library is unaware of any copyright claims to this item; use at your own risk.

Note: If you use this image, rights assessment and attribution are your responsibility.

Harry S. Truman Library & Museum.

Attention media: Please make note of this item's accession number. Print out this page and retain it for your permissions records before downloading this image file for possible publication. Library staff cannot sign permissions forms or provide additional paperwork. The Library charges no usage fees for downloaded images.