American soldier of the 21st Infantry Regiment

Description
One of four American soldiers of the 21st Infantry Regiment, 24th Division, company unknown, found midway between the forward observation post and the actual front line. Cameraman's caption states that the men were probably captured the night of July 9th and then shot. Most of them were shot through the head with their arms tied behind their backs. Along with them was a variety of equipment burned and destroyed.

Date(s)
July 10, 1950

Accession Number 2007-435

8x10 inches (21x26 cm) Black & White

Related Collection Harry S. Truman Papers: President's Secretary's Files

Keywords Korean War, 1950-1953 Soldiers

HST Keywords Korean War - General File

Rights Public Domain - This item is in the public domain and can be used freely without further permission.

Note: If you use this image, rights assessment and attribution are your responsibility.

Credit: Robert Dangel U.S. Army Harry S. Truman Library & Museum.

Attention media: Please make note of this item's accession number. Print out this page and retain it for your permissions records before downloading this image file for possible publication. Library staff cannot sign permissions forms or provide additional paperwork. The Library charges no usage fees for downloaded images.