On our way to turn in our guns before leaving for home 129th Field Artillery during World War One

Description
On our way to turn in our guns before leaving for home. Soldiers of the 129th Field Artillery turn in their weapons after World War I. Many of them returned home on the ship Zeppelin. From an album of Lorain Cunningham, who was a soldier in the 129th Field Artillery and a friend of Harry S. Truman.

Date(s)
1919

Accession Number 2007-855

1.75 x 2.75 inches Black & White

Related Collection Cunningham, Lorain H. Papers

Keywords Soldiers World War, 1914-1918

HST Keywords World War I

Rights Public Domain - This item is in the public domain and can be used freely without further permission.

Note: If you use this image, rights assessment and attribution are your responsibility.

Harry S. Truman Library & Museum.

Attention media: Please make note of this item's accession number. Print out this page and retain it for your permissions records before downloading this image file for possible publication. Library staff cannot sign permissions forms or provide additional paperwork. The Library charges no usage fees for downloaded images.