Letter from Bone to Mines

Independence, Dec. 22d 1863.

Prof. H. Mines -

Dear Friend -

Your letter of the 29th ult. was received a few days ago, and I now send you a reply. Your house still stands - not burnt - not many houses have been burnt in the city, but all more or less injured by rough treatment. An Irishman is now in your house - treats it tolerably well - pays no rent. The Regale Brick house, near ours, is now occupied by an old man, who cut up some 10 or 15 hogs in the parlor room on last Saturday. That is a fair sample of how dwelling houses are treated in this town. A number of the good business houses on the square are now

Description
December 22, 1863 letter written by W. Bone to Professor H. Mines. From: Harry S. Truman

Date(s)
1963

Accession Number 63-87-01

5x7 inches (13x18 cm) Black & White

Rights Public Domain - This item is in the public domain and can be used freely without further permission.

Note: If you use this image, rights assessment and attribution are your responsibility.

Credit: Harry S. Truman Library Harry S. Truman Library & Museum.

Attention media: Please make note of this item's accession number. Print out this page and retain it for your permissions records before downloading this image file for possible publication. Library staff cannot sign permissions forms or provide additional paperwork. The Library charges no usage fees for downloaded images.