Letter from Bone to Mines

occupied as horse-stables by the Kansas 11th. You ask me if you could not recover damages for the damage done your property? I doubt it. If property is used by a Command, as a necessity, and it is damaged, then the Government will pay for it, I believe; but when it is torn to pieces by private soldiers without orders, I do not think the Gov. will pay for it.

I gave your letter to Hinton. I hope you are doing well at Lawrence.

Respectfully,

W. S. Bone
