

Manchu Iron Works Power Station

Description

Manchu Iron Works Power Station Number 3, showing the former location of two 20,000 KW turbo-generators and control equipment. Everything was removed by Soviets during occupation, except one frequency changer visible at the far end of the room. Photograph taken during the U.S. Reparations Mission. Edwin Pauley was the U.S. Ambassador on the Allied Reparations Committee from 1945-47 (the committee that assessed the reparations the Axis powers could afford to pay the victors).
