Mongolian Natives In Field

Accession Number 2008-1242

3x4.25 Color

Description
Exterior view of two unidentified, standing Mongolian natives and one kneeling. Exact location in Mongolia not given. Charles Thayer headed a party of fourteen Americans who traveled to Mongolia on a vacation in the summer of 1963, probably in June. They arrived at Ulan Bator and during the trip visited the Gobi Desert as well as the steppes of Mongolia and the site of the ancient capital of Karakorum. Thayer states the group travelled through the provinces more than 1000 kilometers by bus and jeep and another 600 kilometers by air.
