Officers are Welcomed Aboard a Naval Air Rescue Boat near Virgin Islands

Description

After climbing up the gangplank of a Naval air rescue boat used to transport President Harry S. Truman from the Williamsburg to shore at St. Croix, Virgin Islands, unidentified officers walk past a line of sailors and are welcomed aboard. The President will be visiting Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, and Cuba. From: Naval Photo Center sent to the Truman Library by the National Archives. Original 4x5 negative.

Date(s) ca.
February 1948

Accession Number 2012-97

4x5 inches (10x13 cm) Black & White

Keywords Boats and boating Naval officers Presidential trips

HST Keywords Ships - Williamsburg - Trips - Caribbean Sea; Truman - Trips - Virgin Islands

Rights Public Domain - This item is in the public domain and can be used freely without further permission.

Note: If you use this image, rights assessment and attribution are your responsibility.

Credit: U.S. Navy Harry S. Truman Library & Museum.

Attention media: Please make note of this item's accession number. Print out this page and retain it for your permissions records before downloading this image file for possible publication. Library staff cannot sign permissions forms or provide additional paperwork. The Library charges no usage fees for downloaded images.