

Color Photo of Mongolian Natives Tending to Horse

Accession Number 2008-1262

Description

Exterior view with Mongolian men surrounding a horse and pulling on ropes while tending to it. View also contains other men and horses. Exact location in Mongolia not given but appears to be the steppes region. Diplomat and author Charles Thayer headed a party of fourteen Americans who traveled to Mongolia on a vacation in the summer of 1963, probably in June. They arrived at Ulan Bator and during the trip visited the Gobi Desert as well as the steppes of Mongolia and the site of the ancient capital of Karakorum. Thayer states the group travelled through the provinces more than 1000 kilometers by bus and jeep and another 600 kilometers by air.
