Portrait of an Unidentified Man

Description

Portrait of an unidentified man. Image is on a postcard written in German which is addressed to Charles Thayer and is dated 1957 and sent from Munich, Germany. Although the postcard is signed the name is unintelligible. The man in this photograph is believed to be a German. The sender of the post card thanks Mr. Thayer for sending him his new book titled "The Unquiet Germans," published in 1957. It is not known if the picture of the man is also the sender of the postcard.
