Jet Airplane on U.S. Aircraft Carrier

Accession Number 2008-1882-07

Description
Full, frontal view of a U.S. jet airplane located on an U.S. Naval aircraft carrier, location unknown but possibly the Gulf of Mexico. Men can be seen apparently servicing the airplane. Charles W. Thayer was invited to a civilian orientation cruise at the Naval Air Station, Pensacola, Florida, held May 23-25, 1968. Part of the experience included one day at sea aboard the aircraft carrier the U.S.S. Lexington to observe flight operations. This photograph may have been taken during this visit. Contact sheet image, original color negative in Library holdings.

Date(s)
May 1968

1x1.5 Black & White

Related Collection Thayer, Charles W. Papers

Keywords Aircraft carriers Airmen Airplanes, Military Ships Jet planes

Rights Public Domain - This item is in the public domain and can be used freely without further permission.

Note: If you use this image, rights assessment and attribution are your responsibility.

Harry S. Truman Library & Museum.

Attention media: Please make note of this item's accession number. Print out this page and retain it for your permissions records before downloading this image file for possible publication. Library staff cannot sign permissions forms or provide additional paperwork. The Library charges no usage fees for downloaded images.