Jet Airplane on United States Naval Aircraft Carrier

Accession Number 2008-1882-17

3.5x5 Color

Description
Photograph taken on board an United States aircraft carrier, location not given but possible the Gulf of Mexico. A military jet airplane has just landed on the flight deck. Charles W. Thayer was invited to a civilian orientation cruise at the Naval Air Station, Pensacola, Florida, held May 23-25, 1968. Part of the experience included one day at sea aboard the aircraft carrier the U.S.S. Lexington to observe flight operations. This photograph may have been taken during this visit. Original color negative in Library holdings.

Date(s)
May 1968

Related Collection Thayer, Charles W. Papers

Keywords Aircraft carriers Airplanes, Military Military aircraft Ships Warships Jet planes

HST Keywords Ships - U.S.S. Lexington

Rights Public Domain - This item is in the public domain and can be used freely without further permission.

Note: If you use this image, rights assessment and attribution are your responsibility.

Harry S. Truman Library & Museum.

Attention media: Please make note of this item's accession number. Print out this page and retain it for your permissions records before downloading this image file for possible publication. Library staff cannot sign permissions forms or provide additional paperwork. The Library charges no usage fees for downloaded images.