William B. Mabee Inspects Dead Locusts

Description

William B. Mabee, an entomologist with the United States Department of Agriculture, examines a handful of dead locusts in the desert area of Pakistan where locusts breed. Mr. Mabee directed a Point Four program conducted jointly by the governments of Pakistan and the United States to control a locust plague. Control measures consisted of aerial spraying of insecticide and hand-spreading poisoned bait.

Date(s)
September 1951

Accession Number 71-2501

8x10 inches (21x26 cm) Black & White

Related Collection Harry S. Truman Papers Staff Member and Office Files: Philleo Nash Files

Keywords Administrative agencies International relations Scientists Insects International development

HST Keywords Point Four Program; Technical Cooperation Administration

People Pictured Mabee, William B. (William Bruce), 1897-1985

Rights Public Domain - This item is in the public domain and can be used freely without further permission.

Note: If you use this image, rights assessment and attribution are your responsibility.

Credit: Department of State Harry S. Truman Library & Museum.

Attention media: Please make note of this item's accession number. Print out this page and retain it for your permissions records before downloading this image file for possible publication. Library staff cannot sign permissions forms or provide additional paperwork. The Library charges no usage fees for downloaded images.