

Captain Lewis Parks On the USS Manchester After Rescue of Air Force Pilot

Description

Captain Lewis Parks (center) is on the bridge of the USS Manchester with two unidentified sailors. One of the men may be Captain R. Yoakley who was rescued after he parachuted from his damaged airplane just before it disintegrated. Captain Yoakley was rescued just as he hit the water and spent the next six days aboard the USS Manchester as it shelled Korean installations. The photograph is part of an album entitled "Pictures by R. Admiral Lewis Parks. USS Manchester."

Date(s)

March 1951

Accession Number 2015-316

8x10 inches (21x26 cm) Black & White

Related Collection Parks, Lewis S. Papers

Keywords Ships Naval officers Korean War, 1950-1953

People Pictured Parks, Lewis S. (Lewis Smith), 1902-1982

Rights Public Domain - This item is in the public domain and can be used freely without further permission.

Note: If you use this image, rights assessment and attribution are your responsibility.

Harry S. Truman Library & Museum.

Attention media: Please make note of this item's accession number. Print out this page and retain it for your permissions records before downloading this image file for possible publication. Library staff cannot sign permissions forms or provide additional paperwork. The Library charges no usage fees for downloaded images.