Officials Arriving For IAPES Conference

Description
View of Labor Department officials arriving in Nashville, Tennessee, for an IAPES (International Association of Personnel in Employment Security) meeting or conference. Robert C. Goodwin, Labor Department's Bureau of Employment Security, is standing on the right. The man in the center shaking hands is believed to be Martin P. Durkin, Secretary of Labor from January - September, 1953. Unidentified members of the Nashville area media are on the left. All are standing by an American Airlines airplane having landed at the Nashville Airport.
