Officials Arriving For IAPES Conference

Description
View of Labor Department officials arriving in Nashville, Tennessee, for a IAPES (International Association of Personnel in Employment Security) meeting or conference. Robert C. Goodwin, Labor Department's Bureau of Employment Security, is standing second from the right. The man in the center, second from the left and shaking hands is believed to be Martin P. Durkin, Secretary of Labor from January - September, 1953. All are standing with the Nashville Airport in the background. Others in view are not identified.
