World War I Soldiers Walk Along a Street Somewhere in France

Description
A large group of soldiers walk along a street, possibly in Brest, France. The town can be seen in the distance and the beach along the Penfeld River on the left. The picture has a small white defect in the lower left quadrant. The photograph is part of a collection belonging to Harry S. Truman from the time he spent in France during World War I.

Date(s) ca.
May 1918

Accession Number 2016-980

2.9 x 2.1 inches Black & White

Related Collection Daniel, Margaret Truman and E. Clifton Daniel Papers

Keywords Soldiers World War, 1914-1918

Rights Public Domain - This item is in the public domain and can be used freely without further permission.

Note: If you use this image, rights assessment and attribution are your responsibility.

Harry S. Truman Library & Museum.

Attention media: Please make note of this item's accession number. Print out this page and retain it for your permissions records before downloading this image file for possible publication. Library staff cannot sign permissions forms or provide additional paperwork. The Library charges no usage fees for downloaded images.