Dignitaries Gathered for a Memorial Ceremony at World War I Monument in Bathelemont, France

Accession Number 70-3190

Description

A group of dignitaries are shown standing during a ceremony at a World War I monument located in Bathelemont, France. The monument was erected by the French as a memorial to the first three American soldiers to die in World War I: Thomas Enright, James Gresham, and Merle Hay of the 16th Infantry, Company F, 1st Division of the American Expeditionary Force. It is believed that this event was held during the American Legion gathering in Paris at this time. This photograph is part of a group associated with the Knights of Columbus activities taking place in Paris during this event.

Date(s)
September 1927

8.5x11 Black & White

Related Collection Matthews, Francis P. Papers

Keywords Cemeteries Memorials Military ceremonies, honors, and salutes Soldiers' monuments War memorials World War, 1914-1918

HST Keywords France

People Pictured Foch, Ferdinand, 1851-1929

Rights The Library is unaware of any copyright claims to this item; use at your own risk.

Note: If you use this image, rights assessment and attribution are your responsibility.

Harry S. Truman Library & Museum.

Attention media: Please make note of this item's accession number. Print out this page and retain it for your permissions records before downloading this image file for possible publication. Library staff cannot sign permissions forms or provide additional paperwork. The Library charges no usage fees for downloaded images.