Stuart Rice Car Unable to Pass on Road in Northern Okinawa

Accession Number 2013-4935

Description
Stuart A. Rice quote: "Coming down through a cut, around a curve, singularly like a spot on the road from Petroplis, we met a truck coming up. The only way for the truck, when we'd given all the ground we could, was blocked by a telephone pole. The wire had been removed (to go over the top, I guess) so the two or three Okinawan truck drivers and helpers, cheered on by the girls in the back, set to work and pulled and dug up the pole. But the worst for us was when we mired in deep mud, with all hands collecting brush and the drivers working the jack we managed - both ways, the worst being coming back." The Statistical Advisors were in Okinawa, Japan to learn about the conditions, problems and developments.

Date(s)
February 8, 1956

3 x 4 1/2 inches Black & White

Related Collection Rice, Stuart A. Papers

Keywords Roads Trucks Statistics

Rights The Library is unaware of any copyright claims to this item; use at your own risk.

Note: If you use this image, rights assessment and attribution are your responsibility.

Harry S. Truman Library & Museum.

Attention media: Please make note of this item's accession number. Print out this page and retain it for your permissions records before downloading this image file for possible publication. Library staff cannot sign permissions forms or provide additional paperwork. The Library charges no usage fees for downloaded images.