Military Buildings in World War I France

Description
A photograph of what appears to be military buildings nestled in the trees. Probably part of the American position where Harry S. Truman was located near Verdun. The photograph, with the number 35 visible in the bottom right corner, is part of a collection belonging to Harry S. Truman from the time he spent in France during World War I.

Date(s) ca.
1919

Accession Number 2016-1041

2.9 x 2.1 inches Black & White

Related Collection Daniel, Margaret Truman and E. Clifton Daniel Papers

Keywords World War, 1914-1918

Rights Public Domain - This item is in the public domain and can be used freely without further permission.

Note: If you use this image, rights assessment and attribution are your responsibility.

Harry S. Truman Library & Museum.

Attention media: Please make note of this item's accession number. Print out this page and retain it for your permissions records before downloading this image file for possible publication. Library staff cannot sign permissions forms or provide additional paperwork. The Library charges no usage fees for downloaded images.