Japanese Survivors in Nagasaki, Japan

Description
Seven unidentified Japanese survivors walk down a street in Nagasaki, Japan after the atomic bomb was dropped on August 9, 1945. In the background are rubble and the remains of two buildings. Two of the women in the photograph are carrying children on their backs.

Date(s)
September 1945

Accession Number 2015-3116

4 x 5 inches Black & White

Keywords Nagasaki-shi (Japan) bombardment, 1945 Nuclear warfare World War, 1939-1945 War damage

Rights Public Domain - This item is in the public domain and can be used freely without further permission.

Note: If you use this image, rights assessment and attribution are your responsibility.

Credit: William Henry Myers Harry S. Truman Library & Museum.

Attention media: Please make note of this item's accession number. Print out this page and retain it for your permissions records before downloading this image file for possible publication. Library staff cannot sign permissions forms or provide additional paperwork. The Library charges no usage fees for downloaded images.