Description

Actor Alan Curtis poses for a still photograph from the motion picture "New Wine." Original caption: Franz Schubert (Alan Curtis) had battled an indifferent world. He had fought bravely, and his great love of music had enabled him to endure unbelievable hardships. One day, however, he finds he can go no further. He decides to give up his music and accept a position as teacher of mathematics in a grade school. This is one of the early scenes from the new film, "New Wine", produced by Gloria Pictures, released through United Artists.
