

Accession Number M1180
Description

An American map titled "For Reference and to Preserve Memories of Days Spent in this Area." The map shows battle lines, boundaries, headquarters, and division positions of the American, French, and German armies. Legends on the map detail the length of front held by the French, British, Belgian, and American armies at the time of the Armistice and the commanders of the American armies and divisions involved. Donated by Clifford Hitterdal.
