

Accession Number M97
Description

An American map titled "Outloading of Major Units in Europe." The map shows railroads, rivers, international boundaries, the movement of United States Army divisions, and the locations and capacities of assembly and staging areas. Three tables attached to the map show the departure schedule of divisions in the European and Mediterranean theaters, as well as, the divisions scheduled to remain in Europe. Parts of this map are hidden because of creases made in the map during lamination. Hidden text in the Leghorn staging area section reads: "Processing, Packing, and Marking; Recreation; Staging Area: Capacity-20,000." Hidden text below the Leghorn section reads: "4,275 Troops at Sea Enroute to S.W. Pacific."
