

Accession Number M644
Description

An American map titled "Germany: Zones of Occupation." The map shows American, British, French, and Soviet occupation zones, including joint administration areas such as the Bremen Enclave and Berlin. An attached sheet, hiding portions of the map and the legend, refer to the "Polish-German Frontier" and details border proposals east of the Oder-Neisse Line, the area covered by each proposal, and the populations within as of 1939. Annotations, in red pencil, highlight the Ruhr and Saar areas with an additional line indicating a proposed railroad line near Aachen, Germany.
