

Accession Number M1778
Description

An American map titled "Newsmap for the Armed Forces: Monday, December 4, 1944." The map of the Western front shows roads, rivers, international boundaries, and points of Allied activity. The map of Japan shows railroads, roads, rivers, and other details. Printed text on this map reads: "Saipan-based superfortresses strike Tokyo twice within four days." The inset of Tokyo shows railroads, roads, rivers, city limits, city districts, and areas of strategic importance. The inset of the southwest Pacific shows the distance from Saipan in the Marianas Islands to Tokyo. The map of the front in Burma and China shows railroads, roads, rivers, relief, international boundaries, the Burma Road, and points of Allied activity. Printed text reveals news on multiple fronts. Printed text and photographs on the back describe the efforts of the United States Army Medical Department. This section, titled "These Guys are O.K.," reads in part: "never in the history of war has there been anything even remotely approaching the marvelous record of achievement of our Army Medical Department."
