

Accession Number M1447
Description

A brochure titled "The United States Army: Guide for Leave Troops." The larger map of Paris shows roads, railroad stations, museums, main buildings, parks, churches, sporting venues, theaters, subway lines and stations, subway lines under construction, and other details. The smaller map of the Paris Metro shows each line and its stops. Printed messages from several Commanding Generals relay expectations and standards that the soldier must attend to. Other printed text includes a short history on some of the main buildings and an index that locates areas on the larger map. Printed text on the back notifies soldiers of the services and events available to them while on leave. A note referencing "Hotel Raphael" and a show ticket from "Folies-Bergere" are attached.
