

Accession Number M126
Description

A relief map of Jackson and Clay County, Missouri. Included are annotations and drawings relating to a proposed airport near Birmingham, Missouri. The pink lines signify the proposed boundary of the airport and other potential areas of use. An annotation near the bottom left corner of the map reads: "Note: Shaded area near Cement City and north-west of proposed airport-is very desirable as bomb proof location-for storage or other essential war time use." Handwriting on the back reads: "Jackson County, MO" and "3300."
